Sunday's Gospel Reflection

Matthew 25:31-46

"Truly I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me."

Sunday is the special Feast of Christ the King. Jesus is telling us that we are not judged by the things we own but by our actions. Every one is created in the image of our Lord and we should love everyone whoever they are, just as Jesus loves us.

2 Cedar

2 Cedar's Liturgy was about the mysteries; these were the Annunciation; mystery of heaven; and the Holy Trinity. The children made a poem about what would happen when they went heaven— live forever and connected to God. On earth you need to be kind and compassionate and never be mean to others. They sang their song beautifully with actions and we heard every word.

From the Classes:

1 Beech: They have been learning about Mary and how she visited her cousin Elizabeth. When she visited she was going to tell Elizabeth about having a baby and was surprised to find that Elizabeth was having a baby too. Do you know who these babies were? Who would they grow up to be?

6 Willow

In RE we wrote a newspaper report on Fr Pedro Opeka. Pope Francis visited the little town of Friendship called Akamosoa. Fr Pedro dedicated himself to improving the lives of over 5000 people creating villages, houses and schools.

Prayer of the Week

Dear Father God,
Help me to hear you today. To hear your joy in the birds songs. To hear your heart in the chattering voices To hear your voice in the quiet Help me to hear you today. Amen.
